

GRENLEC POWERS RENEWABLE ENERGY FOR CARE INSTITUTIONS

Grenlec installed a solar photovoltaic (PV) rooftop installation at the Dorothy Hopkin Home for the Disabled.

Investing in renewable energy helps our customers save money and is good for the environment. A total of 20kW in renewable installations was gifted to three Care Institutions recently by Grenlec.

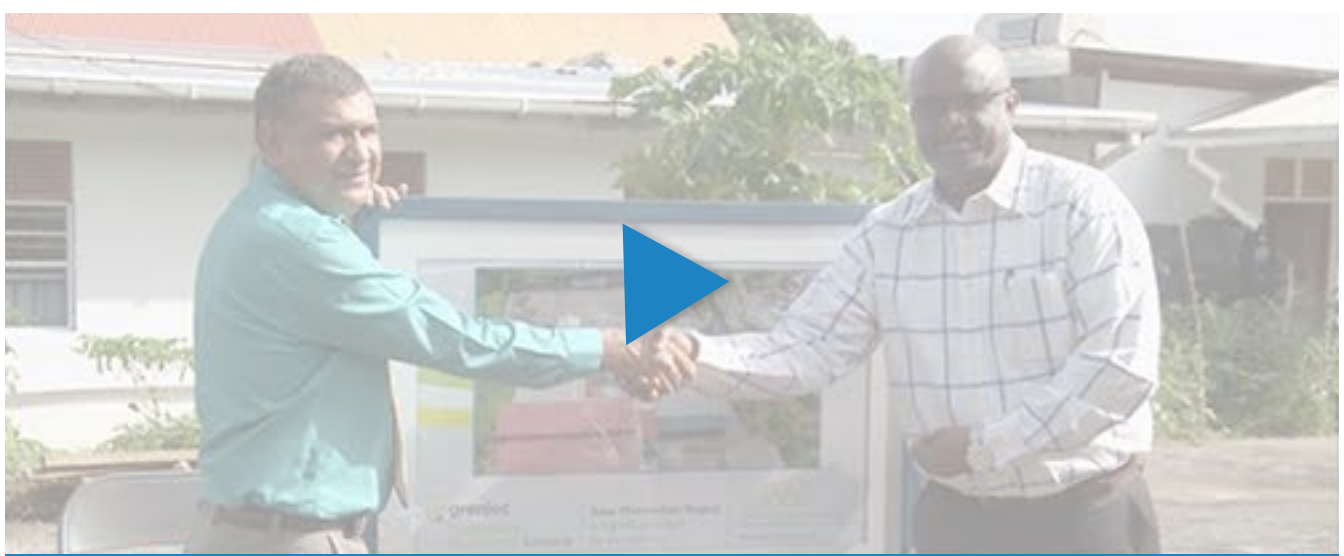

Hillview Home

Charles Memorial Home

Dorothy Hopkin Home for the Disabled

WATCH VIDEO

To date, Grenlec has provided renewable energy solar systems to six care institutions. The other three recipients are the Bel Air Home, Queen Elizabeth Home, and the Grand Anse Home for the Aged.

LEARN MORE >>

RENEWABLE ENERGY IN GRENADA AS OF DECEMBER 31, 2018

SYSTEMS INSTALLED
2.7 MWP

% OF PEAK DEMAND
8.4%

ELECTRICITY GENERATED
3.3 GWH ANNUALLY

POWERS
1,835 HOMES ANNUALLY

DISPLACES
2,101 METRIC TONNES ANNUALLY

GET CONNECTED

